

SUDSnet National and International meeting 11th & 12th May 2011 Plus visit 13th May 2011

Venue – University of Abertay Dundee, Scotland

This two day meeting will showcase national and international SUDS projects. Abstracts for talks of up to 20 minutes are invited from practitioners and researchers.

Event Programme

Wednesday 11th May (starting 11:00 am) – World and European Issues

Topics Integrating water management into urban open space
Infiltration SUDS
Surface Water Drainage and Archaeological Heritage
SUDS Monitoring - lab and field scale

Confirmed speakers;

Professor Tony Wong – World specialist in Water Sensitive Urban Design (WSUD), Melbourne, Australia.

Jeroen Kluk - Tauw, Netherlands; Modelling and mapping of urban storm water floods.

Floris Boogaard - Technical University, Delft, The Netherlands; SUDS monitoring in field and lab.

Hans de Beer - Geological Survey of Norway; The impact of surface water on archaeological deposits.

Speaker from University of York.

Wednesday 11th May Evening - Conference Dinner

Thursday 12th May - SUDS in the UK and Scotland

Topics National SUDS Standards in England & Wales
CIRIA's project on retrofitting surface water management measures
Reflections on SEPA's approach to SUDS
SUDS Whole life costing
The SUDS vesting process in Scotland
Integrating Green Infrastructure in architecture and planning

Friday 13th May 2011 - Field Visit (starting 09:00 am)

A full day visit will be organised to SUDS in Dundee and the East of Scotland where there is a wide range of regional, site and source control features. The visit will be guided by staff from Abertay. (subject to viable numbers) Cost £25 per person.

Costs £50 per delegate per day / Field Visit £25 per delegate / Conference Dinner £25 per delegate

Booking form available at: <http://sudsnet.abertay.ac.uk/news.htm>

Please submit paper abstracts (max 300 words) to sudsnet@abertay.ac.uk by 31st March 2011

For further information contact SUDSnet: sudsnet@abertay.ac.uk